Pendle Hill

Pendle Hill is a short walk away and we are ideally situated for walking the Pendle Way and exploring the many paths to woods and reservoirs, taking in the dramatic scenery.

Newchurch is the centre for the Lancashire Witch's Trail. The local Church has the eye of God, dated 1544, on the Church wall and is reputed to have the grave of one of the Witches in the Churchyard. It is a unique hillside village, nestling before Pendle Hill, with woodlands and extensive views over the hills. Spirits abound and we are situated opposite the famous Witches Galore shop

.A host of Historic places are within a short drive including the Ribble Valley and the Yorkshire Dales. Local Restaurants, Pubs and Tea shops are a short distance away.

Appreciate the elegance of our Victorian and Georgian furnishings, oak panelling and cast iron fireplaces, whilst enjoying the tranquility and comfort of fine surroundings.

We serve a full English breakfast, prepared on our AGA. Vegetarian options are available on request. All our produce is from local suppliers, to ensure the best quality.
